

CONFLUENCE TRASH BASH

SATURDAY, MARCH 27, 2010

Confluence - Where rivers join. In this case, the Missouri and Mississippi Rivers.

Trash - This is pollution. It is found in our neighborhoods, rivers and streams.

Bash - A party! Joining together to clean-up pollution from our neighborhoods, rivers, and streams is cause for celebration.

Land and water are connected. As stormwater flows across the land, it picks up trash along the way and the trash is carried to a creek, river, or stream.

Help stop water pollution.

Join us as we MAKE A DIFFERENCE in our communities by cleaning up our neighborhoods, rivers, and streams.
